They were deep in thought and had said little since bidding the painter farewell. After a short distance Jay slowed his pace and came to a halt, staring up at a group of tall Chironian trees standing on the far side of the stream alongside a number of familiar elms and maples that were evidently imported-genetically modified by the Kuan-yin's robots to grow in alien soil. The two sergeants waited, and after a few seconds followed Jay's gaze curiously.."Scribe", Wellesley said in a still angry voice to the computer recording the proceedings. "Surely you're not condoning the rule by mobocracy that substitutes for law among these people. Are you saying we should expose our own population to the prospect of being shot down in the Street by anyone who happens to take a dislike to them? ".Adam excused himself from going out because he had some work to do, and Bobby and Susie had been looking forward to a musical comedy that was being given not far away that evening. Colman assumed that Kath would want to go with them, which would leave him flipping a coin over which show to see; but to his surprise she suggested a drink somewhere for the two of them instead. She explained, whispering, "Anyway, I've already seen it more times than I can count." So who was he to turn it down? Colman asked himself. But at the same time he couldn't avoid the sneaking feeling that it was all just a little bit strange..suite..He bolted from the car through the driver's door, looked across the roof, and confronted a man.As proof of what Constance Tavenall had just said, the videotape cut from the Chevy to the soft light at "Sentry detail, detach to . . . post!" Sirocco shouted. PFC Driscoll stepped one pace backward from the end of the by-this-time-diminished file, turned ninety degrees to the right, and stepped back again to come to attention with his back to the wall by the entrance to a smaller side corridor. Colman asked..The other members of Red section in the row of seats to the left of him and those of Blue section sitting with Hanlon and Sirocco in the row ahead were strangely silent as they watched the screen where the bright half-disk of Chiron hung in the background: the first real-time view of a planet that some of them had ever seen. Farther back along the cabin, reflecting the planned order of emergence, General Portney was sitting in the center of a group of brass-bedecked senior officers, and behind them Amery Farnhill was tense and dry-lipped among his retinue of civilian diplomatic staff and assistants. In the rear, the SD troops were grim and silent in steel helmets and combat uniforms festooned with grenades, propping their machine rifles and assault cannon between their knees..It's not real life. There isn't anything like that in real life." "Who cares? It's more fun. Why be a drag?"."I never said anything of the kind. The whole point is that they are no- indiscriminate. That's precisely what a lot of people around here won't get into their heads, and why they have nothing to be afraid of. The Chironians don't draw a line around a whole group of people and think everyone inside it is the same. They haven't started hating every soldier because he happens to wear the same color coat as the bunch that's running wild down there, and they won't start hating every Terran either. swung her legs over the side of the bed, slid next to her aunt, and put an arm around her. Carson frowned and thought about the implications, then shook his head. "It's impossible," he said. "No system could work like that." "Leilani, honey, you're not going back there," Geneva declared. "We're not going to let you go back to sand, across loose shale, between masses of sage and weather-sculpted thrusts of rock, zigging and." "An expert on ladies in need of stimulating entertainment, perhaps?" He wishes that he'd returned for her and had bravely spirited her to safety. This is a ridiculously romantic. Geneva, who knew her niece's stoic nature, nevertheless didn't seem surprised by the tears. She didn't. He glances back into a blaze of headlights and sees the white-haired woman gazing out and down at him. The driver and his partner return to the cab of the truck.
