"At need," Ard said..a man called Early, who would have liked to find the young upstart who defeated his master Gelluk..There was not much to be got from the people his men brought to him. The same thing again: they troubled time; its story casts light on how some of the customs and institutions of the weakness proved he was not dangerous. Some talents were best not left to run wild, but there was. It was hard work out in the pastures. "Who doesn't do hard work?" Emer had asked, showing her round, strong arms, her hard, red hands. The cattleman Alder expected him to stay out in these meadows until he had touched every living beast of the great herds there. Alder had sent two cowboys along. They made a camp of sorts, with a groundcloth and a half tent. There was nothing to burn out on the marsh but small brushwood and dead reeds, and the fire was hardly enough to boil water and never enough to warm a man. The cowboys rode out and tried to round up the animals so that he could come among them in a herd, instead of going to them one by one as they scattered out foraging in the pastures of dry, frosty grass. They could not keep the cattle bunched for long, and got angry with them and with him for not moving faster. It was strange to him that they had no patience with the animals, which they treated as things, handling them as a log rafter handles logs in a river, by mere force..So it proved. Indeed, to Golden's amazement, Master Hemlock sent back a scrupulous two-fifths of.guess and made one quick gesture toward the stone tower..who challenge the power of the old. And at the centre, nothing. An empty courtyard. The Archmage.without front walls. Approaching them, I found low, dimly lit cubicles, in which stood rows

Loose regular meter, alliteration, stylised phrasing, and structuring by repetition are the principal poetic devices. Content includes mythic, epic, and historical narrative, geographical descriptions, practical observations concerning nature, agriculture, sea lore, and crafts, cautionary tales and parables, philosophical, visionary, and spiritual poetry, and love songs. The deeds and lays are usually chanted, the ballads sung, often with a percussion accompaniment; professional chanters and singers may sing with the harp, the viol, drums, and other instruments. The songs generally have less narrative content, and many are valued and preserved mostly for the tune..Diamond glanced at Rose. The girl turned her head away, looking down.."I didn't understand," Irioth said, "about the others. That they are other. We are all other. We must be.
