Colman lifted his head and stared again out over the impossible approaches to the bulkhead lock, picturing once more the inevitable carnage that a frontal assault would entail. Who on either side would stand to gain anything that mattered to them? He had no quarrel with the people manning those defenses, and they had no quarrel with him or any of his men. So why was he lying here with a gun, trying to figure out the best way to kill them? Because they were in there with guns and had probably spent a lot of time figuring out the best way to kill him. None of them knew why they were doing it. It was simply that it had always been done. "So what is it they've got?" Colman asked again. "Missiles wouldn't be any use to them, and they know it. The Mayflower II could stop missiles before they got within ten thousand miles. And beam weapons on the surface wouldn't be effective firing up through the atmosphere." With a Driscoll sighed irritably. This was no time for long debates. "You don't understand," he said. Geneva left the door half open behind her. She sat on the edge of the bed, sideways to her niece. Jean spun round and ran back to the elevator. Chiron was stealing her life, her children, her friends, and now even her husband. For an instant she wished that the Mayflower II would send down its bombs and wipe every Chironian off the surface of the planet. Then they would be able to begin again, cleanly and decently. Ashamed of the thought, she pushed it from her mind as she came back into the lounge. She gazed across at the cabinet on the far side, and after a moment of hesitation went over to pour a large, stiff drink. "But you haven't. You haven't let it go at all." "Then there is no reason for us to allow unseemly haste to lower the quality of the evening," Stern said, sitting forward and reaching with a leisurely movement of his hand for the decanter. "A little time ripens more than just fine cognac. Will you join me in a refill?" empty skull? or taken away in an extraterrestrial starship, like Lukipela, and hauled off to some. Noah half expected to hear ominous music building toward the assault on the Chevy. Once in a while, speaking a word to each other, they move on, away from the truck. "Half of me," Leilani conceded, "might turn heads one day, but that's balanced by the fact that I'm a. Sighing, Micky got up to retrieve a second beer from the refrigerator. "Ice cream, of course!" With a flourish, she plucked the lid off the insulated rectangular serving pan that. "Howard Kalens, no doubt about it," Bernard Fallows was saying. "If we've only got two years to knock the place .. into shape, he's just the kind of man we need. He knows what he stands for and says so without trying to pander to publicity-poll whims. And he's got the breeding for the position. You can't make a planetary governor out of any rabble, you know." "I'm always serious, but I'm always laughing inside, too." "Thanks a lot," Jay said. "Well, hello, Sergeant," she said huskily. "I was beginning to wonder if I had a deserter. Now, I wonder what could be on your mind at this time of night." Pernak didn't seem overeager to accept the implied invitation. to agree. He started to say something noncommittal, then stopped and looked up as Jay entered. "Hi, Jay. How was the movie? After another short silence Lechat said, "It's a strange system of currency though, isn't it. I mean, it's not additive at all, or subject to any laws of arithmetic. You can pay what you owe and still not be any poorer yourself. It sounds --I don't know impossible somehow." Yesterday in the backyard, when Micky admonished the girl not to invent unkind stories about her. Sometimes dear Mater came complete with a mess to clean up. Leilani could handle messes. She didn't.
