Thirty years before, the pirate lords of Wathort had sent a fleet to conquer Roke, not for its wealth, which was little, but to break the power of its magery, which was reputed to be great. One of the wizards of Roke had betrayed the island to the crafty men of Wathort, lowering its spells of defense and warning. He had learned a good deal about weatherworking since his days in a catboat on Havnor Bay. Losen shouted, beating his paralyzed legs with his weak hands. "Learn our strength!" said Medra. "I can tell you only how it seems to me," the Herbal said, reluctant, uncomfortable. The king left soon after, and the Master Windkey went with him.
