She spoke of forked tongues, of voices hissing forth from mouths. Amanda sat back sipping her coffee with a contented smile. "I hope your business isn't suffering because of all the time you've spent on me." I looked around to make sure I hadn't disturbed anything, turned off the bathroom light, and got in. "Virtually none. Do you think I'd go around talking to myself in grocery stores if I had friends?" But here luck turned against them, for no sooner had they reached the shore again when the sailors descended on them. The jailor had at hist woken up and, finding his captives gone, had organized a searching party which set out just as Amos and the prince reached the boat. "Don't worry, there's another over behind you." Now that they were looking for them, they quickly spied four of the creatures. Song took a sample bag from her pouch and held it open in front of the beast. It crawled halfway into the bag, then seemed to think something was wrong. It stopped, but Song nudged it in and picked it up. She peered at the underside and laughed in wonder. "It's a deal."
