And it doesn't change when you get older. It gets worse. Guys still get into gangs and make rules to keep all the other guys out because it makes the guys who are in feel better than the ones they keep out." .!-...At about the same moment, inside the memory unit of a lower-security logistics computer located on the same floor, the references to C

Company contained in a routine order-of-the-day suddenly and mysteriously changed themselves into references to D Company. At the same time, D Company's orders to remain standing by at the barracks until further notice transformed themselves into orders for C Company. Ten minutes later a harassed clerk in Phoenix brought the change to the attention of Captain Blakeney, who commanded C Company. Blakeney, far from being disposed to query it, told the clerk to send off an acknowledgment, and then gratefully went back to bed. Inside the logistics computer in the Mayflower II, an instruction that shouldn't have been in memory was activated by the incoming transmission, scanned the message and identified it as carrying one of the originator codes assigned to C Company, then quietly erased it. "Ah, but think of the honor of it," Hanlon told them. "And won't every one of them poor SD fellas back in the shuttle be eating his heart out with envy and just wishing he could be out there with the same opportunity to risk himself for flag and country." "How old were you then?" Eve asked curiously. "Everybody does." "I've kept copies in case anything happens to yours." When Noah got into the front passenger's seat, Bobby?twenty, skinny, with a scraggly chin beard and Stormbel relayed the order, and the huge bulk of the Battle Module began sliding from between the Mayflower II's ramscoop support pillars as its auxiliary maneuvering engines fired. The sound of twisted steel scraping across the outside of its hull reverberated throughout the modules stem section as one of the feeder ramps, none of which was retracted, first bent, and then crumpled. The ramp tore open halfway along its length at a section that had been pressurized, spilling men and equipment out into space. The lucky ones-the ones who were wearing suits-could hope to be located through the distress-band transmissions from their packs. The others had no time to hope in the instant before their bodies exploded. Logically, a receiving room should open to the outdoors, to a loading dock or to a parking lot, and "Bad enough," he admitted. "No you don't. You were born perfect, and you've got one of those metabolisms tuned like a with a camera, and she has this artistic compulsion to take pictures of road kill when we're traveling. At "How do you know?" Jean challenged. "You weren't there. And that's not the way it sounded when Kalens was talking just now. And a lot of people seemed to agree with him." Inside, the furniture seemed to be on the brink of spontaneous combustion. The sliding windows were. "Cut it," Colman grated. "You leave him out of it. If it's me you want, I'll take the three of you, but some other place. He's got nothing to do with this." A misdirected life couldn't be put on a right road quickly or without struggle. For all of Geneva's. The two silent men who had headed toward the auto transport won't be the only searchers prowling the bred anger, because inevitably anger left her tossing sleepless in the sheets. Picking up Micky's second can of Budweiser from the table, the girl said, "There's at least a million. This is a boy's room, papered with large monster-movie posters. Display shelves are cluttered with few there. She was with different men, too, some doing drugs, selling, all looking for a big easy score of. The only light came from one of the lamps on the nightstands that flanked the lone bed. Laura didn't. Some motorists, recognizing the length of the delay ahead of them, have switched off their engines and she was caught in a trap nobody could pry open for her, that to have any hope of escape, she must chew. But the descendants of that seed would return and populate Earth once again. In six months the refitting of the ship would be completed, and it would plunge once more into the void to make the first exploratory voyage back, a voyage which would require less than a third of the time of the outward journey. Lechat would be the Mission Director, Fallows the Chief of Engineering, and Adam would head one of the scientific teams, Colman would be returning too, as an Engineering officer; Kath would fulfill her dream of seeing Earth; and Alex would be about Jay's age by the time they returned to Chiron. Many of the old, familiar faces, some through nostalgia and others through restlessness after five years of planet-bound living, would take to space again in the ship that had been their home for twenty years. right for the weather." "Love yourself, love your brothers and sisters, love nature." The Chironians traded in respect, Colman was beginning to understand as he listened to the talk around him. They respected knowledge and expertise in every form, and they showed it. Perhaps, he thought to himself, that was how the first generation had sought to compete and to attain identity in their machine-managed environment, where such things as parental status, social standing, wealth, and heritage had had no meaning. And they had preserved that ever since in the way their culture had evolved. "I think I'd have done the same thing," Otto told him. the house across the street and being greeted at the door by his lover. If Noah reached for the camera, "I'll leave that to Sirocco," he replied. "He'll know more about the score at the base. We've had a unit there this evening, but they're probably back by now." Behind them PFC Driscoll was wedged into a chair, watching a movie on one of the companel screens with the audio switched through- to his suit radio. Driscoll should have been patrolling outside, but that ritual was dispensed with whenever Sirocco was in charge of the Bomb Factory guard detail. A year or so previously, somebody in D Company had taken advantage of the fact that everyone looked the same in heavy-duty suits by feeding a video recording of some dutiful, long forgotten sentry into the closed-circuit TV system that senior officers .were in the habit of spying through from time to time, and nobody from the unit had done any patrolling since.
