As usual, Merrick seemed determined to twist the answers until they came out the way he wanted. "Of course not," Bernard replied. "But I think people are exaggerating the situation. That incident was not representative of what we should expect. The Chironians act as they're treated. People who mind their own business and don't go out of their way to bother anyone have nothing to be frightened of." Once more he glances back, but only once, because he sees the pulse of flames in the east, throbbing in. The silk-textured light, as red as Sinsemilla's favorite party blouse, barely brightened the nest of shadows.
