Some noise or movement roused him. He looked up and saw the wizard standing before him, looming above him..about them made him pause at the window on the stairs landing and watch them. A thing between them.and to talk with him. He was, as far as Otter could see, well-meaning and honest. "If you won't.acts. He needed much more quicksilver than he had, therefore he needed a finder. Finding was a base skill. Gelluk had never practiced it, but he could see that the young fellow had the gift. He would do well to learn the boy's true name so that he could be sure of controlling him. He sighed at the thought of the time he must waste teaching the boy what he was good for. And after that the ore must still be dug out of the earth and the metal refined. As always, Gelluk's mind leapt across obstacles and delays to the wonderful mysteries at the end of them..
