"How does he hold them all?" the Namer said. "Herbal, you were here when Sparrowhawk and Thorion were challenged by Irioth. His gift was as great as Thorion's, I think. He used it to use men, to control them wholly. Is that what Thorion does?" "I don't know," said the Doorkeeper. Witchery was restricted to women. All magic practiced by women was called "base craft," even when it included practices otherwise called "high arts," such as healing, chanting, changing, etc. Witches were to learn only from one another or from sorcerers. They were forbidden to enter Roke School, and Halkel discouraged wizards from teaching women anything at all. He specifically forbade the teaching of any word of the True Speech to women, and though this proscription was widely ignored, it led in the long run to a profound, long-lasting loss of knowledge and power among the women who practiced magic. protected by armed men and spells of defense. Sorcerers and witches were drowned in the poisoned. Equilibrium but by holding still. We have gone too far. For the Archmage and Lebannen to go bodily. After a while the Patterner said, "That art, summoning, you know, is very . . . terrible. It is . . . always danger.
