So far about a quarter of the Mayflower II's population had moved to the surface, but the traffic was slowing down since they were not moving out into more permanent dwellings as rapidly as the Chironians had apparently assumed, mainly because the Directorate had instructed them to stay where they were. Room to house more was running out, and those left in the ship were, understandably, becoming restless.."No thanks. I want to see her go. I'll put her on the roses. She'll like them."..of great age and immeasurable wisdom. Nevertheless, he wishes he had been brave for her.."Would it make any difference to your problem if I had?".."When he has to explain where Luki's gone, what'll he say?" Geneva wondered..He returned to the Bowery, where a couple of businessmen..out on the town bought him a drink. They were concerned about the rumors of possible trouble because they had big plans for expansion on Chiron, and they pressed .. Colman for inside information from the Military. Colman ' ..d he didn't have any. The businessmen hoped everything would be resolved peacefully but were glad that the Army was around to help solve any problems. They didn't .. want peace to prevent people like Colman from getting shot or so that Chironians who were like Jay and the black guy near Zeerust could become engineers or run their farms without getting wiped out by air strikes; they wanted it So that they could make money by hiring Chironians at half the wages they'd need to pay Terrans, and to set up good, exclusive schools to put their kids in. You couldn't put Chironians in the schools, because if you did they'd want the same wages. And in any case they'd never be able to afford it. The Chironians weren't really people, after all.."Stop this now," Borftein advised grimly. "How much of the Army do you think will follow you?"..Curtis shudders. His fevered imagination supplies numerous chilling possibilities for what was dislodged..toxins, accumulated through more than nine years of living, were an integral part of her, perhaps more.."Who?".The camera tilted up, panned right: A silver Jaguar approached through the early twilight. The car..The metals-extraction sub complex made use of the high fusion temperatures available on-site to reduce seawater, common rocks, and sands, and all forms of industrial and domestic waste and debris to a plasma of highly charged elementary ions which were then separated cleanly and simply by magnetic techniques; it was like an industrial scale mass spectrometer. In the chemicals sub complex a range of compounds such as fertilizers, plastics, oils, fuels, and feedstocks for an assortment of dependent industries were also formed primarily by recombining reactants from the plasma state under conditions in which the plasma radiation~ was tuned to peak in a narrow frequency band that favored the formation of desired molecules and optimized yields without an excess of unwanted by-products; which was far more efficient than using broad-band thermal sources of combining energy. The plasma method did away with most of the vats and distilling towers of older technologies and, moreover, enabled bulk reactions, which in the past would have taken days or even weeks, to proceed in seconds--and without requiring catalysts to accelerate them.."I've kept copies in case anything happens to yours."..and a scarlet cotton blouse covered the other.
