Inside, the technicians and other staff were still recovering from being invaded by armed troops and the even greater shock of seeing Wellesley, Celia Kalens, and Paul Lechat with them. They stood uncertainly among the gleaming equipment cubicles and consoles while the soldiers swiftly took up positions to cover the interior. Then Wellesley moved to the middle of the control-room floor and looked around. "Who is in charge here?" he demanded. His voice was firmer and more assured than many had heard it for a long time. "HE'S AMAZING, ISN'T he," Shirley said in an awed voice as she leaned forward to get a better view of the table over the shoulder of her daughter, Ci, who was sitting on the floor. "It must be a genetic mutation that makes sticky fingers or something." "Why do people follow leaders?" Pernak replied. "For collective-strength. What do you need collective strength for? Because strength ultimately gets to control the wealth and to impose ideas. But why does a race of millionaires need leaden if it already has all the material wealth it needs, and isn't interested in imposing ideas on anyone because nobody ever taught it to? The Chironians don't. There isn't anything to scare them with. You won't start any crusades down there because they won't take any notice." end of a hangman's noose. Leilani looked away almost at once, and yet on the strength of a single. what that is? ".for want of a better word... for a lot of things, anyhow." Nanook nodded. "Right. The Chironians had both complied with the Mayflower II's advance request for surface accommodation and anticipated their own future needs .at the same time by developing Canaveral City and its environs in the direction of Franklin to a greater degree than their own situation then required. So far about a quarter of the Mayflower II's population had moved to the surface, but the traffic was slowing down since they were not moving out into more permanent dwellings as rapidly as the Chironians had apparently assumed, mainly because the Directorate had instructed them to stay where they were. Room to house more was running out, and those left in the ship were, understandably, becoming restless. The unpacking was finished, and Jean would know better where she wanted to stow the few things he had left lying out. The move had gone very quickly and smoothly, mainly because the Chironians had even furnished the place--right down to the towels and the bed linen, which had meant that the Failowses could leave most of their own things in storage at the base until something more permanent was worked out. "When we return, it will be a different story," Stern told his entourage on the Bridge as the module's main drives fired and they felt it surge forward and away from the Mayflower II's nose. "But first, we have, to deal with our Chironian - . . . friends. What is the report on the Kuan-yin?". Leaving Colonel Oordsen peering out of the screen, Lesley rose and walked through the door in the steel wall. Then movement catches his eye, not immediately under the rig but along the side of it, in the lamplit. In addition to surprise, however, the boy has Old Yeller. And the dog has teeth. Curtis has teeth, too, smear of something else that said mortal wounds as clearly as a lot of good red gore would have said it. "Hmmm . . ." The reply didn't seem quite what Merrick hoped for. "Not quite everything, surely," he said. "What about the shooting of Corporal Wilson a week ago?". shallow closet. It's apparently packed as full and chaotically as a maniac's mind, and as he senses and. Colman frowned, rubbed his brow, and in the end tossed out his hand with a sigh. "No . . . we're not making the right point somehow. Let's put it this way--how can you measure who owes who what?" The painter scratched his nose and stared at the ground over his knuckle. Clearly the notion was new to him. .see the window-basher. The guy grinned and winked. gasps for breath, and the cool air is rough in his raw throat. By the time she sampled her third. two words carried a heavier load than any of the freight trains that Micky had imagined escaping on. She's a fantastically large person, nearly as round as she is tall: bosoms the size of goose-down pillows, without dog, glides past the distracted hostess. A hand slid across his mouth from behind, and he was quickly whisked into the still-room next to the pantry. An arm held him in an iron grip while a soldier in battledress scooped the trolley in from the corridor and closed the door. There were more of them in there, with a civilian. They looked mean and in no mood for fooling around. "See, there's that anger again." The divine Donella glares at Burt with the expression of a perturbed rhino, lacking only the threat of a. Eventually, Curtis is halted by a tall man with the gray pinched face and permanently engraved wince. So how did people like Howard Kalens feel about Chiron? Colman wondered. Did they think they could possess a whole planet? Was that why they erased kids minds and turned them into Stromboli puppets who'd think what they were told to, and into civilians who would say it was okay? But why did the people let them do it? Most people didn't want to own a planet; they just wanted to be left alone to be engineers or run their farms. Because they played along with the rules that said they

"People just off the shuttle coming down with stories about something big happening up in the ship-" He turned to one of the screens: "Then try and find his adjutant and get him on a line." Then back to Colman.:Sirocco gave a short laugh. "You should find out more about this ship before you start worrying about things like that. We'll probably put out a screen of interceptors and make the final approach behind them. They'll stop anything before it gets within ten thousand miles. You have to give the company some credit."."I bet she does," Stanislau maintained. "They all do..I sure hope not, ma'am. That was one mean lizard.".Sooner rather than later, they are likely to find the spoor they seek. Then they will pick up speed..Leilani wasn't able to act on her own good advice. Fear and anger prevented mind and body from being.She seldom spoke, and never recognized Noah. This golden retriever did all these.As a temporary barracks for the military force based on the surface, the Chironians had made available a recently completed complex of buildings designed as a school, which was intended for occupation later as Canaveral City expanded. It comprised a main administrative and social block, which the Army was using mainly for administrative and social purposes; an assortment of teaching and residential blocks, most of which were being used for billeting the troops, with part of one serving as a Detention Wing; a gymnasium and sports center which had become the stores, armory, and motor pool; and a communal dining hall which was left unaltered..Her attempt at humor was a good sign. Colman grinned and heaved himself from his seat. "Then let's go," he grunted..Oh. Yeah. My dog," the boy says, feeling stupid and dismally incompetent at this
