"The women," she whispered, "the hand. Ask them. In the village. I did see the Mountain." "I don't know. I don't know yet." It may be that Segoy is or was one of the Old Powers of the Earth. It may be that Segoy is a name for the Earth itself. Some think all dragons, or certain dragons, or certain people, are manifestations of Segoy. All that is certain is that the name Segoy is an ancient respectful nominative formed from the Old Hardic verb seoge, "make, shape, come intentionally to be." From the same root comes the noun esege, "creative force, breath, poetry." "Whatever for?" "Where's the girl?" When she asked him if students came there from the Great House, he said, "Sometimes." Another time he said, "My words are nothing. Hear the leaves." That was all he said that could be called teaching. As she walked, she listened to the leaves when the wind rustled them or stormed in the crowns of the trees; she watched the shadows play, and thought about the roots of the trees down in the darkness of the earth. She was utterly content to be there. Yet always, without discontent or urgency, she felt that she was waiting. And that silent expectancy was deepest and clearest when she came out of the shelter of the woods and saw the open sky..there-in time as well as in space.. "The Master said that such gifts or capacities, untrained, are not only wasted, but may be." "They put something into the blood, I think." "And sometimes witches and sorcerers will say that they've summoned the dead to speak through. They came forward on their knees, face to face, their arms straight down and their hands joined. They kissed each other all over their faces. To Rose's lips Diamond's face was smooth and full as a plum, with just a hint of prickliness above the lip and jawline, where he had taken to shaving recently. To Diamond's lips Rose's face was soft as silk, with just a hint of grittiness on one cheek, which she had rubbed with a dirty hand. They moved a little closer so that their breasts and bellies touched, though their hands stayed down by their sides. They went on kissing..Myself in a mirror. I opened the door wider. Porcelain, silver pipes, nickel. Toilets..thought they'd be..." She gazed off at the sheep on the hill, her face troubled. "Some of them are. He went slowly round to the eastern side of the hilltop, bright and warm already with the light of the sun a couple of fingers' width above the horizon. Looking under the sun he saw the roofs of a town at the head of a bay that opened out eastward, and beyond it the high line of the sea's edge across half the world. Turning west he saw fields and pastures and roads. To the north were long green hills. In a fold of land southward a grove of tall trees drew his gaze and held it. He thought it was the beginning of a great forest like Faliern on Havnor, and then did not know why he thought so, since beyond the grove he could see treeless heaths and pastures..apart with the palm of his hand..Instinctively I rubbed my hand on my trousers. And the king there is also a god. But before that and after are the streams. Caves, stones, hills. Trees. The earth. The darkness of the earth."..The head of the giant rolled its eyes, reeled, looked at me as if it were having great fun..Roke School was founded by both men and women, and both men and women taught and learned there during its first decades; but since during the Dark Time women, witchery, and the Old Powers had all come to be considered unclean, the belief was already widespread that men must prepare themselves to work "high magic" by scrupulously avoiding "base spells," "Earthlore," and women. A man unwilling to put himself under the iron control of a spell of chastity could never practice the high arts. He could be no more than a common sorcerer. Male wizards thus had come to avoid women, refusing to teach them or learn from them. Witches, who almost universally went on working magic without giving up their sexuality, were described by celibate men as temptresses, unclean, defiling, essentially wicked..from other witches and from sorcerers, not from wizards. What we teach here is in a language not..again and again. She had met a wall of air and silence. She touched nothing. He would not hear.."Set a price?" he flashed out.

Then he remembered who he was not, and spoke humbly. "No. I." "You have been a witch, Irian?". The wizard started forward all at once, his eyes blazing, and cried, "Open to the King's name! I." "Nais," I said very quietly. "Nais, don't be afraid. Really, there's nothing to fear." Standing on that hill, Medra had said, "There is a vein of water, just under where I stand, that prejudice certainly influenced Halkel, the first Archmage, in creating his own authoritative." "There's bread," Ayo said, and Mead hurried to pack hard bread and hard cheese and walnuts into a
