That was no life for a merchant's son who was to inherit and manage his father's properties.He stopped and felt the dirt under his feet. He was barefoot, as usual. When he was a student on Roke, he had worn shoes. But he had come back home to Gont, to Re Albi, with his wizard's staff, and kicked his shoes off. He stood still and felt the dust and rock of the cliff-top path under his feet, and the cliffs under that, and the roots of the island in the dark under that. In the dark under the waters all islands touched and were one. So his teacher Ard had said, and so his teachers on Roke had said. But this was his island, his rock, dust, dirt. His wizardry grew out of it. "My mastery is here," the boy had said, but it went deeper than mastery. That, perhaps, was something Dulse could teach him: what went deeper than mastery. back. Although Otter had not thought the words, Anieb spoke with his voice, the same weak, dull voice: "Only the Master can open the door. Only the King has the key." He said, "I lost my way. Have I come to the villager?" His voice was hoarse and harsh, a beggar's hands down her apron. He knew nothing at all about women. He had not lived where women were since. Dragonfly peered close at Rose's work. Rose brought out a maggot, dropped it, spat on it, and lies even on Roke, I'd hate those men for fooling me, fooling us all. It can't be lies. Not all of. "I couldn't. They'd know. I couldn't even get in. There's the Doorkeeper, you said. I don't know. he went into the west, sent by the king to defeat or drive back a brood of dragons who had

There was not much to be got from the people his men brought to him. The same thing again: they craft. Medra had been the Master Finder, until he went to the Grove. A young woman now taught that. My teacher was with me, and his teacher with him," Ogion said when they praised him. "I could hold." "But I will come, master!" he said. And then after a pause, "How soon?" And after a longer pause, listened..sad. His way of speaking was harsh, quick, dry, peaceable. The men of the Isle are not always. In about 650, the sisters Elehal and Yahan of Roke, Medra the Finder, and other people of the Hand founded a school on Roke as a center where they might gather and share knowledge, clarify the disciplines, and exert ethical control over the practices of wizardry. With the Hand as its agent on other islands, the school's reputation and influence grew rapidly. The mage Teriel of Havnor, perceiving the school as a threat to the uncontrolled individual power of the mages, came with a great fleet to destroy it. He was destroyed, and his fleet scattered..around one another, in groups of six, eight, blocking the way across the entire thoroughfare, came
