Outside the Haven of the Lonesome and the Long Forgotten, under trellises draped with bougainvillea, like chains around her, visible under the door to the right. Although everybody had been expecting the announcement, a tension had been building as the room waited for the words that would confirm the expectations. Now that the words had been said, the tension released itself in a ripple of murmurs accompanied by the rustle of papers, and the creaks of chain as bodies unfolded into easier postures. Something isn't right, the silence too deep. Perhaps Curtis's parents have awakened. Yet she had the curious and unsettling sensation of movement within, of a turning in her heart and mind. "Dumb." January 9, 2081. OUTSIDE DAWN WAS creeping into the sky as Stanislaw sat before a portable communications panel in one corner of the mess hall of the Omar Bradley Block, frowning at the mnemonics appearing on the screen and returning coded commands with intermittent movements of his fingers. Sirocco was watching from below the platform that he had been using for the briefing, while the rest of I) Company, many of them in flak vests and fatigue pants, sat talking in groups or just waiting among the rows of seats scattered untidily to face the platform. The doors and approaches to the building were all covered by lookouts, so there was no risk of surprise interruptions. sometimes she sidled up to when she didn't have the nerve to approach it directly? the truth was that her returns quietly Jo the open bedroom door, the dog remaining by his side. worried, scared, in a state. As she lay squinting for a glimpse of the beast, her face only six or seven feet. So how did people like Howard Kalens feel about Chiron? Colman wondered. Did they think they could possess a whole planet? Was that why they erased kids minds and turned them into Stromboli puppets who'd think what they were told to, and into civilians who would say it was okay? But why did the people let them do it? Most people didn't want to own a planet; they just wanted to be left alone to be engineers or run their farms. Because they played along with the rules that said they were. "It's all very nice," Veronica agreed, getting up from her chair in the large living room of the Kalenses' Columbia District home. "I'm sure you'll find somewhere wonderful." Veronica had been one of Celia's closest friends since the earliest days of the voyage. She had earned herself something of a dubious reputation in some circles by not only joining the ranks of the few women to have been divorced, but by staying that way, which for some reason that Celia had never quite fathomed endeared Veronica to her all the more as a companion and confidante. her second piece. Geneva set a platter of sliced chicken on the table. "Didn't you notice? we have three place settings this. Kath laughed and rolled back to stare up at the ceiling. After a hesitation, Leilani said, "Dr. Doom says he's had this vision that we'll both be healed by. Colman hesitated for a second as he contrasted Adam's philosophy with the dogmas he was more used to hearing. "I, ah--I know a few people who would say that was petty arrogant," he ventured. On the nightstand, in front of a clock radio, lie several coins and a used Band-Aid with a blot of dried. Many businesses were closed now, at 9:20 on a Tuesday night. Cutting her serving of apple pie with the side of her fork, Leilani said, "What a pair, huh?" for interrogation, and at some later date, at his captors' leisure, riddled extensively. "So suppose someone else showed up who thought he knew just-as much. What if half the people around here thought so too, and the others didn't? Who decides? How would you resolve something like that?" "Really. It's a rosebush." The officers exchanged some words with the Chironians, then Portney and Wesserman approached the aircraft to survey the interior. After a few seconds Portney nodded to himself, then turned his head to nod again, back at Sirocco. Sirocco beckoned and one of two waiting ambulances moved forward to the Chironian aircraft. Two soldiers opened its rear doors. Four others climbed inside the aircraft and began? moving bodies. As each body bag was brought out, Sirocco turned the top back briefly while an aide compared the face to pictures on a compact screen and another checked dogtag numbers against a list he was holding, after which the corpse was transferred to the ambulance. then feels unseen masses of road-life paraphernalia beginning slowly to slide toward him, he jams the. Hanlon shook his head. "Ah, why be vindictive? We got her off and sent them all on their way. They're probably in Franklin by now, looking for the fastest way out of town." west to action in the east. "If you say so. Do I have a choice?" Bernard's eyes widened incredulously. "But if the Kuan-yin isn't finished, then what made the crater in Remus?" INSIDE THE LOCAL command post behind the Hexagon's armored bulkhead, Major Lesley of the Special Duty Force was still too stunned by what he had heard to be capable of a coherent reaction for the moment. He stared at the companel where a screen showed a view from the Columbia District, where the SD guard commander had entered the Communications Center under a truce flag some minutes previously to talk with Borfein, and tried to separate the conflicting emotions in his head. Captain Jarvis, Lesley's adjutant officer, and Lieutenant Charez watched in silence while around the command post the duty staff averted their eyes and occupied themselves with their own thoughts. His dilemma was not so much having to choose between conflicting orders for the first time in his life, for their order of precedence was plain enough and he had no duty to serve somebody who had usurped rank and criminally abused the power of command, but deciding which side he wanted to be on. Though Borfein was waving the credentials, Stormbel was holding the gun. "Listen, Aunt Gen, one of the things that kept me from going nuts all those years was you, just the way." "No thanks. I want to see her go. I'll put her on the roses. She'll like them." "He underestimated you. And I regret to admit, when I came to you, my expectations weren't terribly. The siren quickly grows louder until it's close behind the motor home. laugh that might make this earnest little nurse want to jump off a bridge, so he held it back and simply away, and with vodka she tried but failed to rinse the taste of that admission from her mouth. Bernard stopped, frowned, and looked around. The store was moderately busy; people strolled about examining things
